

KING'S COLLEGE

Your FSA At-a-Glance

What is the plan year for my FSA?

Your employer's FSA plan year starts on July 1st and ends on June 30th.

When may I begin participating in my employer's FSA?

To be eligible to participate in your employer's FSA, you must have been employed 30 calendar days, working the equivalent of 40 hours, after which your participation may commence the first day of the month coinciding with or following the date the eligibility requirements have been met.

What amounts will be available for Health FSA reimbursement at any particular time during the Plan Year?

At any time during the course of the plan year, the full amount of your Health FSA election will be available to you (minus any amounts for which you have already been reimbursed for the same plan year), regardless of the amount that you have contributed at the time your claim is submitted.

What is the last date on which I may submit a claim for medical expenses under my FSA?

As an active employee, you will have 3 month(s) after the end of the Plan Year in which to submit a claim for reimbursement for Medical Care Expenses incurred during the previous Plan Year. This period of time is referred to as a "run-out" period.

After the plan year has ended, may I use the debit card to pay for expenses incurred during the previous plan year?

No. At the time that the debit card is used, funds are pulled from the current plan year. Therefore, to be reimbursed from the previous plan year's funds, it is recommended that you submit a manual claim for these expenses during the run-out period referenced above.

Can I carry over any of my unused Health FSA money to the next plan year?

Yes. You may carry over a maximum of $500 of your unused funds to the next plan year.
