

Health Care Expenses Eligible for Reimbursement
Under a Medical Spending Account

- Acupuncture
- Alcoholism
- Ambulance
- Artificial Limbs
- Artificial Teeth
- Autoette
- Bandages (band aids, wraps, & gauze)
- Braces
- Breast Reconstruction Surgery
- Birth Control Pills
- Braille Books and Magazines
- Car Controls for Handicapped
- Chiropractors
- Christian Science Practitioner's Fees
- Contact Lenses
- Crutches
- Deductibles (Health & Dental insurance deductibles you pay out of pocket)
- Dental Treatment (excluding teeth whitening)
- Dentures
- Diagnostic Devices
- Disabled Dependent Care Expenses
- Drug Addiction
- Drug and Medical Supplies
- Eyeglasses
- Eye Surgery
- Fertility Enhancement
- Guide Dog or Other Animal
- Health Institute
- Hearing Aids
- Home Care
- Home Improvements (Medical Considerations)
- Hospital Services
- Insulin
- Laboratory Fees
- Lead-Based Paint Removal
- Learning Disability
- Lifetime Care-Advance Payments
- Medical Conferences
- Medical Information Plan
- Medical Services
- Medicines-including Rx co-pay
- Medicines over the counter:
 - Allergy medicines, antifungals, cold & flu medicines, first aid topicals, heartburn relievers, nicotine replacement therapies, pain relievers (Tylenol, Advil, Aleve, etc.), stomach remedies
- Nursing Home
- Nursing Services
- Operations
- Optometrist
- Osteopath
- Oxygen
- Physician & Specialist visit co-pays
- Prosthesis
- Psychiatric Care
- Psychoanalysis
- Psychologist
- Special Education
- Sterilization
- Stop-Smoking Program
- Surgical Fees
- Telephone, Special for Deaf
- Television, Special for Deaf
- Therapy
- Transportation Expenses primarily in the rendering of Medical Services
- Tuition Fee (part) if school furnish breakdown of medical charges
- Vasectomy
- Vision Correction Surgery
- Weight-Loss Program if prescribed by a doctor
- Wheelchair
- Wigs
- X-rays

Note: Except for over-the-counter medication many of the above medical expenses to be reimbursable, a physician must prescribe them