Developmental Child Care Center wins Key to City

Over a dozen children at King's Developmental Child Care Center welcomed Rev. Thomas O' Hara, W-B Mayor Leighton, and guests to the Key to the City presentation.

Recently, Wilkes-Barre Mayor Tom Leighton presented the King's College/ St. Mary's Developmental Child Care Center with a key to the city in appreciation for the day care center's contribution to the revitalization of downtown Wilkes-Barre and to mark its recent accreditation by the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC), the nation's leading organization of early childhood professionals.

On hand at the event, in addition to the Mayor Leighton, were King's President Rev. Thomas O' Hara, C.S.C.; Nicholas Holodick, associate vice president for Academic Affairs; Monsignor Thomas Banick of St. Mary's; and Bill Grant, president of Hildebrandt Learning Centers, operator and manager of King's/ St. Mary's Developmental Child Care Center.

The guests were serenaded by a group of 2- and 3-year-olds enrolled in the center's preschool program, who truly won the key to our hearts.

King's blood drive

King's College is holding a blood drive in memory of Michael Sabo and Stacey Feddock for the Red Cross on Thursday, Oct. 7, on the third floor of the Sheehy-Farmer Campus Center from 10 a.m.- 4 p.m.

The Red Cross has instituted a new on-line scheduling tool, eDonor, to create a data base of donors for our blood drive and to register interested applicants; this allows you to arrange an appointment to fit your schedule.

To register on-line, log on to <http://www.givelife.org>, and enter your e-mail address, date of birth and use the sponsor code "Kings". Once you are in the system, you will receive a reminder message for your appointment.

King's has a goal of 110 units - we need to get between 135-150 participants to make that goal.

Every eligible individual should give blood, if not for themselves, at least for the health and safety of their friends, loved ones and neighbors.

Remember to bring your I.D. For more information, contact Valerie Musto at 5725.

Volunteers Needed

Kids Café is looking for volunteers to work with children in grades 1-6 to assist with homework, tutoring, and planned activities. Individuals are also needed to assist with cooking classes, meal preparation and clean up. The Kids Café operates from 3-6 p.m. out of Heights-Murray Elementary School. Anyone interested in volunteering, should contact Lisa Staub at 826-0510 ext. 215.

The Heritage House seeks volunteers to help in basic social arenas at this senior care facility. It is located at 80 E. Northampton Street, Wilkes-Barre. For more information, contact Helene Mancuso at 826-1031.

The Alzheimer's Association will hold its annual Memory Walk on Saturday, Oct. 9, at Robert Mellow Park, Blakely. Registration time is 9:30 a.m. for the 10:30 a.m. walk. For more information or to make a donation, please contact Jackie Borthwick at ext. 5483 or e-mail jaborthw@kings.edu.

Expresso Yourself at Moreau Auditorium

The King's College community will have a chance to showcase its talent at an open jam session at Moreau Auditorium. The music, poetry, stories, or songs are up to you, but it must be centered on a theme. The jam session will take place on Oct. 7, beginning at 8:30 p.m., and the theme will be "To Life." The event will feature Plus 3, followed by an open mic. For more information, contact the Campus Ministry at 5890.

Corrections

Last week's Monarch Notes inadvertently omitted biographic information on new Office of Diversity Director Delight Yokley in the article welcoming new staff.

Let us introduce Delight to you now: She received a Bachelor of Arts degree in history from Messiah College, Master's of Education in Curriculum and Instruction from Cleveland State University. She was previously employed by Congregation of St. Joseph's Seeds of Literacy Program in Cleveland, Ohio, and New Horizon's Youth Ministries in Jarabacoa, Dominican Republic.

The correct title for Tim Smith is senior vice president of Sodexo.

People at King's

Thematic and Methodological Foundations of Alfred Hitchcock's Artistic Vision, by Dr. William A. Drumin, associate professor of philosophy, was recently published by Mellen Press.

Dr. Claire Gilmore, associate professor of finance, co-contributed a chapter entitled "The Impact of NAFTA on the Integration of the Canadian, Mexican, and U.S. Equity markets," to the book North American Economic and Financial Integration, with Ginette McManus, ed. A. M. Rugman, Elsevier press, 2004.

Criminal Justice Association to sponsor golf outing

The Criminal Justice Association will be holding a golf outing at Applewood Golf Course on Oct. 8, at 3 p.m. The cost of the event is $35, which includes greens fee, carts, and food. Prizes will be given for men's and women's straight drive and there will also be a 'Pot of Gold.' For further information, contact Paul Lindenmuth at 5747.

Basketball Candle Sale

King's women's basketball is holding their Annual Candle Sale. Candles are homemade and come with potpourri-decorated lids. Small candles (15 oz.) are $10 and large candles (22 oz.) are $12.50. The sale ends October 8. If you are interested in buying a candle, please contact Bryan Whitten at 5432.
