NEWS FOR THE KING'S COLLEGE COMMUNITY

The Week of December 6, 2004

PUBLISHED BY THE KING'S COLLEGE PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICE

King's honors long-time employees on Patron's Day

King's recently celebrated Patron's Day, the Vigil of the Feast of Christ the King. On this day, the College traditionally honors those employees giving years of service to King's.

Over 50 honorees along with their families, the King's College community, and guests filled the Chapel of Christ the King for a celebratory Mass at which 21 Christi Regis medal and 20-year awards were conferred. The Christi Regis award marks 20 years' of service as well.

Following the Mass, honorees and guests attended a dinner and awards ceremony in the Sheehy-Farmer Campus Center. Rev. Thomas O' Hara, C. S.C., president, presented service awards and honored retirees.

Putt your way through King's

King's 6th Annual Office Golf Tournament will be held on Friday, Dec. 10, at 1 p.m. The nine-hole event is played on a course made of par 3, 4, or 5 holes located in various offices throughout campus. The cost to enter is $5 and prizes will be awarded to the top 10 finishers. All proceeds go to the local Catholic Social Services Christmas Fund. For information, contact Herb Godfrey at 5834.

The Public Relations Office wishes the entire King's College community a joyous holiday season and a Happy New Year.

Financial Aid Office shows King's spirit

The Financial Aid Office won the decorating contest held during Spirit Day. For first prize, the office was rewarded with a pizza and wing party and a bagel basket from Panera's. Career Planning and Placement was runner-up and earned a pizza party. Third place was Residence Life.

Support WinterSERVE

The Office of Volunteer Services will sell Lucinda Pins and Joe Corbi's Pizza at the Christmas Fair on Wednesday, Dec. 8. The proceeds go toward supporting WinterSERVE 2004, during which groups will work with the Women's Drop-in-Center in Spokane, Wash. and the Andre House of Hospitality in Phoenix, Ariz. Lucinda Pins are $18; pizza ranges from $16-18. For information, contact Dawn Morton at 5810.

Volunteers needed

Kids Café needs volunteers to work with children in grades 1-6 to assist with homework, tutoring, and planned activities. Individuals are also needed to assist with cooking classes, meal preparation and clean up. The Kids Café is open from 3:15-6 p.m. and located at Heights-Murray Elementary School. Anyone interested in volunteering, should contact Lisa Staub at 826-0510 ext. 215.

Pittston Manor, an assisted living care facility, seeks volunteers to help with activities such as reading the newspaper, music, bingo, etc. Volunteers are needed on weekdays and weekends. If you are interested, please contact Cynthia at 655-0272.
