

The Week of March 1, 2004

Annual Fund Marks 30th Anniversary of Community Phase

King's College announced the leadership team for the 2004 Annual Fund Campaign at a kickoff luncheon on Feb. 5.

Seated (from left) Claudia Stevens, Chairperson of Community Phase; Frank Pasquini; Milly Jones; Kathleen Daskalakes '82; Diane Zabriski Carpentier '96, Chair of Alumni Phase; and Louise Wasserott, '75. Standing: Rev. Donald Grimes, C.S.C.; Thomas Zabresky '69; James Bone '83; Joseph Frank, Co-Chair of Major Gifts Phase; Atty. Allan Kluger, Co-Chair of Major Gifts Phase; Bill Lynn; Dr. David Martin; Maureen Jordan '94; and Monsignor Joseph Rauscher '61. Absent from the photo are Stacey and Judy Papadopoulos and Robert Stanley '89.

March is National Athletic Training Month

National Athletic training Month is designed to help promote athletic training by making the community aware of all aspects of the profession. The King's College Athletic Training Education Program will be participating in the promotion by sending out weekly e-mails during the month of March. The e-mails will detail the role of an athletic trainer, the education required to become an athletic trainer, and the required certification to become an athletic trainer.

You are invited to the state-of-the-art Scandlon Sports Medicine Clinic to find out more about the athletic training profession in the Scandlon gymnasium on Wednesday, March 3 from 12:30-3 p.m. Cake will be served.

ATEP will also be holding a presentation on the rehabilitation of the shoulder titled "The Pathologic Shoulder: Anatomy, Evaluation, Surgical Intervention, and Rehabilitation" on the evening of March 18, at 8 p.m.: the Sports Medicine faculty will discuss the evaluation and anatomy of the shoulder; Dr. William Charlton, who is the King's College team physician, and a physical therapist with the Geisinger Medical Group will discuss surgical techniques.

In addition, the faculty in the Athletic Training Education Program will be appearing during the morning show on WNEP, Channel 16, during March saying "Good Morning Pennsylvania." The segments will air either at 7:45 or 8:45 a.m., beginning Monday, March 1. For more information about ATEP, contact Amy Zawadzki at 5650 or e-mail amzawadz@kings.edu or Greg Janik at 5684 or e-mail gkjanik@kings.edu.

'What exactly do they do there anyway?'

This is an occasional feature to give readers an understanding of the duties and activities of other campus offices within the King's College community. This week the column focuses on:

Educational Conference Center and College Discovery Program

Division: Academic Affairs

Administration: Teresa M. Peck, associate vice president for Enrollment and Academic Services.

Staff: Suzanne McCabe, director of the Educational Conference Center and College Discovery Program; Bonny Lanieski, Educational Conference Center and College Discovery Program assistant.

Location: Administration Building, first floor.

Function: Conference Center

- Organizes all aspects of summer residential conferences
- Organizes academic year conferences, seminars, workshops, dinners, and other events for outside clients
- Serves as liaison to dining services, security, media services, and maintenance to provide full services to clients in areas such as menu selection, parking, directions, technical needs, and room set-ups
- Assists on-campus groups with the planning and organization of conferences and workshops they may be hosting
- Handles reservations of classrooms for evening (after 3:15 p.m.) and weekend use

Function: College Discovery Program

Programs designed for pre-college students.

- Provides high school seniors and juniors the opportunity to take for-credit college classes
- Administers the Diocesan Scholar Program and the Johns Hopkins Center for Talented Youth scholarship program
- Organizes the summer Kids at King's program for elementary and junior high school students
- Works with the Admissions Office to arrange campus visits for student groups
- Assists faculty implement programs for elementary and/or high school students, such as the 7th & 8th grade Writing Workshop
- Administers the Luzerne County Summer Youth Program
- Seeks to develop new programs for bringing students to campus

The Educational Conference Center and College Discovery Program welcome the opportunity to assist faculty and staff with the planning and organization of events, from hosting a regional meeting for an organization, to develop a program designed to bring potential students to the King's campus.

Experiencing the Arts

Naturally Functional by Skip Sensbach

Through March 17

Exhibition of pottery

Widmann Gallery

Sheehy-Farmer Campus Center

Seeking Soccer and Floor Hockey Players

King's Athletic Department is seeking faculty or staff to participate in co-ed indoor soccer or floor hockey teams for spring intramurals. Indoor soccer, 6 on 6, will be held on various evenings during the week in the gym. Floor hockey will be held on the basketball court outside the gym; games to be announced. For more information, contact Kathy Kerr at 5443 or e-mail krkerr@kings.edu.

Hear the 'Voices of Ireland'

The Office of College Diversity in conjunction with Women's Studies is hosting "Voices of Ireland" on Wednesday, March 3 at 7 p.m. in the Sheehy-Farmer Campus Center. The presentation will feature a talk on Women in Ireland with Kate Gibbons from the Refugee and Immigration office at Catholic Social Services and will be followed by an Irish dance lesson from Kerrillee Morton of the Butler Academy of Irish Dance.

Raffle to Benefit

Children's Miracle Network

Pre-Health Professions is holding a 50-50 raffle to benefit The Geisinger Children's Miracle Network through March 5. Tickets are available from any club member or from the main office of the Physician Assistant Program, and will also be sold in the lobby of the Sheehy-Farmer Campus Center from 11 a.m.- 2 p.m. and 4-7 p.m. The raffle runs until Friday, March 26, when winning tickets will be drawn at noon. Tickets are $1 each, or 3 for $2.

Help Fight Poverty

PovertyFighters.com, a vital, growing, on-line community of individuals and companies giving families the chance they need to work their way out of poverty, is holding its annual ClickDrive through March 26.

By "clicking" on the Povertyfighters Web site, corporate sponsors "donate" money to microcredit charities around the world. Microcredit gives poor people a hand up, not a hand out, by loaning them money to start their own businesses.

Click on www.povertyfighters.com to make your contribution; there is a two click limit per day; for more information, contact Christina Casale at 8740 or at ccasale@kings.edu.

Out and About

Dr. Joseph Kraus, assistant professor of English, will lead a discussion on the "Jewish Gangster in History" at the Jewish Community Center, South River Street, Wilkes-Barre, on Tuesday, March 16 at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Kraus has written articles and taught college courses on gangsters in literature, Jewish gangsters in Chicago, and the ways that our culture remembers, forgets, and distorts the history of organized crime. Call Barbara Sugarman, Adult & Cultural Director at 824-4646 for reservations.

Do You Have Something You Would Like to Share with the King's Community?

We would love to share your news!
Please e-mail your information to the public relations office at: printern@kings.edu
or call intern Joseph Giomboni at 5957
Monday, Wednesday, or Tuesday afternoon

Faculty Update

Jocelyn Hook, assistant clinical professor in the physician assistant program and representative of the Pennsylvania Society of Physician Assistants to the Women's Health Alliance, recently had an article, "Vaginal Delivery System for Contraception," published in the PSPA News.

King's Welcomes

Linda M. Bound, adjunct faculty, p. a. program
Brett S. Blemler, PA-C, adjunct faculty, p..a program
Maureen P. Chamberlain, adjunct faculty, education
Scott Price, security
Thomas Rogish, adjunct faculty, education
Charles R. Smith, adjunct faculty, business
Maryanne Toole, adjunct faculty, education

The name of Sandra Kase, adjunct faculty, history, was spelled incorrectly in last edition of Monarch Notes.

Monarch Deals

Boscov's, Wilkes-Barre, is offering a King's employee shopping pass worth 15 percent off all purchases from March 21-23. Discount passes are available in the Public Relations office on the sixth floor of the Administration building.

Service Plus Auto Center, 62-66 State Street, Wilkes-Barre, is offering a 10 percent discount to all King's faculty and students. Have any service performed, and show your college I.D. to receive the discounts. Offer excludes sale prices. For more information, call 970-2400 to set up an appointment.

King's College employees are eligible for discounted rental vehicle rates for both business and personal use as part of Enterprise Rent-a-Car's Corporate Class program. To schedule a reservation, call 1-800-RENT-A-CAR, or online at www.enterprise.com. Remember to give the King's Corporate Class ID# G800481.

Calendar of Events

Lent 2004

Daily Mass, Chapel of Christ the King
Monday, Wednesday, Friday: noon
Tuesday and Thursday: noon and 4:30 p.m.

Lenten Letters

Following Sunday's 7 p.m. Mass
Moreau Auditorium

Night Prayer

Liturgy of the Hours
Tuesday, March 2
Br. Jim Miller, CSC, 7 p.m.

Stations of the Cross- Walking the Way

with Contemporary Martyrs
Wednesday, March 3, 9 p.m.

Eucharistic Adoration

Friday, March 5, 9 a.m.- 4:30 p.m.;
Benediction, 4:35 p.m.

Thursday 3/4

Men's Lacrosse at Cazenovia College, 4 p.m.

Friday 3/5

Softball, Spring Trip to Fort Pierce, Fla., March 5-8
King's vs. University of the Sciences, Fla., 7 p.m.

Saturday 3/6

Softball at Fort Pierce, Fla.
King's vs. University of Sciences, 9 a.m.
King's vs. Northwestern College, 6 p.m.

Sunday 3/7

2004 Homestead Baseball Challenge, Homestead, Florida
King's vs. Upper Iowa College, 11 a.m.
King's vs. Becker College, 6 p.m.
Softball at Fort Pierce, Fla.
King's vs. Davis & Elkins College, 6 p.m.